

Married for five years, we have built a wonderful life together in Orange County, California. Though our lives are enriched each and every day with a committed love for each other and the constant embrace of family and friends, our deep yearning to become parents remains foremost in our hearts. We feel strongly that adoption was meant for us, and we await with anxious anticipation for the gift of parenthood through this loving process. By choosing us to be your baby's parents, you will know that no child could ever be more loved. In our arms, this child will be cherished forever.

Warmly,
Jami & Jason

To learn more about us please view our profile.
<http://web.me.com/jamikovac/adoption/Welcome.html>